Total No of students present: 47

On 27th October, 2021, a virtual session on FINANCIAL LITERACY was conducted by St. Xavier's Institute of Education from 2.00 p.m. to 3.00 p.m. The resource persons for the day were Ms. Deepali Bhagwate Impact Manager Program at Rise Infinity Foundation and Idobro Impact Solutions. and Mr. Deepak Nanda (Senior Associate Impact - Communications and Technology person with RISE Infinity Foundation.

The session commenced with the opening remarks by Principal, Dr. Sosamma Samuel, where madam emphasized on the need for financial literacy and expressed her gratitude towards the speakers for the day for their selfless effort in sharing their knowledge. Dr. Elvina Pereira introduced Ms. Deepali to the gathering. The long list of credentials left the attendees awe-struck, and all awaited eagerly for the session to unfold. During the session the students were introduced to the concept of Financial Literacy and what it really means - Not to make money, but to understand how to save it. Ms. Deepali mentioned and I quote "Money is a language". Dhan means money and Gyan means knowledge.

Later the students were guided onto a website <https://dhangyan.com/> by Ms. Deepali and Mr. Deepak; and were instructed how to register themselves to the same. A few instructions on how to use the website's interface were also given thereafter. The students were also informed that the online course is free of cost and that all those who take the course would receive a certificate on Financial Literacy on completion of the course. The session concluded with the clearing of doubts, if any, and all the students were encouraged to register themselves for this extremely rewarding course.
