educational management

-Time should be given to complete the lessons during internship

Excellent quality education is provided.

Longer break for some time for recreation as well.

Monthly wellness check through google forms

More Sessions from alumnus.

Have earlier exposure to co teaching or peer teaching.

Lots of activities conducted

There is good use of AV aids by some teachers that makes the teaching learning process interesting.

There should be more breaks between the teaching process as paying attention for longer periods gets mentally tiring

More activities when class gets exhausting

Teaching wise - teachers are well prepared and have very good content knowledge.

Lectures can be kept short rather than having lengthy lectures, this helps in engaging students.

Demo lessons by the teachers are effective, so more lessons can be given for observation.

Internships must be in different boards to gain experience. It gets very difficult to then opt for a board other than SSC.

The working hours can be long and exhausting at times. Library can be updated with more recent novels.

Reduce on the content under self regulated learning.

The self regulatory learning is completely left undone due to which it's very difficult to understand that content.

Understanding the context of the students.

The teachers encourage critical thinking and reflection on the important topics. Practical Experiences are provided by the professors. There is in-depth focus on all topics in the content.

incorporation of quiz, puzzles, and more fun activity during lectures.

- provide feedback related to the assignments, internal exams before our next exams so that we know where we need to improve.
- provide enough time for co-curricular and extra activities.
- library should be updated. Relevant books should be kept related to our pedagogy. Don't have relevant books for economics pedagogy. Textbooks should also be kept.

To provide a feedback for the assignments, essay and class test

To update the books in library that will be helpful for referencing and reading

To give opportunities to different students to try their different set of skills

1. Breaks during lectures
