Mentor – Mentee Relationship

Mentor

A mentor is an individual with expertise who can help develop the career of a mentee. The mentor guides, trains, advises, and promotes the career development of the mentee.

Mentee

A person who is advised, trained, or counselled by a mentor.

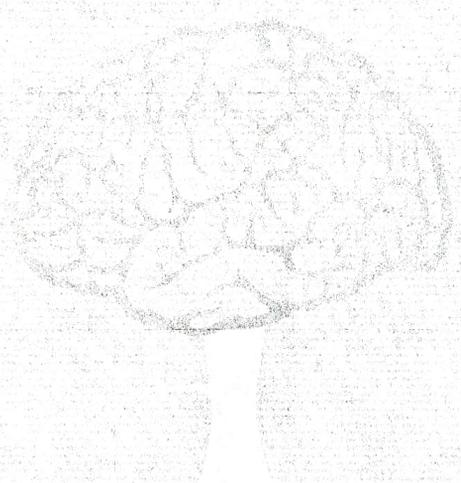

M. Babar

Broader Objectives

To empower the mentees to take ownership of their learning process.

To develop a program for personalized mentoring for the wellbeing of the mentee.

To promote positive beliefs and value systems in the mentee.

To create a platform to foster a long-term, positive relationship with of mentor and mentee

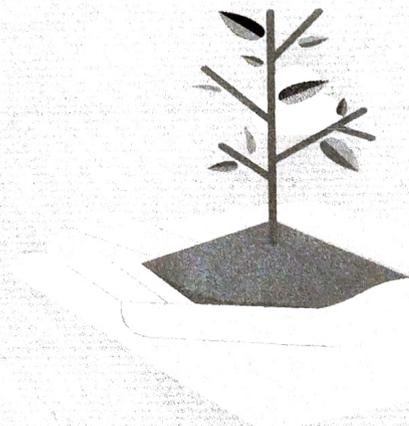

To develop strategies or activities that can support the academic, psychological, and social development of the students

Mentee-Mentor Relationship

- The Mentoring relationship is confidential
- Mentoring is non-directive in its approach
- It is a relationship built upon trust and mutual respect
- The Mentor empowers the Mentee to take responsibility for their own learning and career development
